La Quinta, Benahavis is known for its picturesque surroundings and exclusive real estate. The area's popularity, amenities, proximity to golf courses, and views are important factors that contribute to its desirability and potential for appreciation. The plot is south facing with a size of 1329m2 and offers sea, golf, and mountain views. Having a project and build license in place saves time and effort, streamlining the construction process. It eliminates potential delays associated with obtaining necessary permits, allowing for a quicker start to the development.
