Tucked away in one of Benalmadenas beautiful original areas, this immaculate, completely renovated villa blends classic Andalusian architecture with modern luxuries. The villa features an expansive, open-plan living area perfect for gatherings, a master suite on the main floor, 3 additional en-suite bedrooms, a utility room and a patio on the second level and a large full basement (bedroom, bathroom, cinema/game room) with access to the outdoor dining area and the pool. The outdoor spaces with a private pool, manicured gardens, and terraces, are ideal for long summer days and alfresco dining. This elegant residence offers both tranquility and easy access to the Costa del Sol's vibrant amenities, including world-class golf courses and fine dining. The villa is a luxurious retreat, combining privacy with proximity to the lively Costa.
