A truly magnificent family home here in the heart of Mijas Golf. South Facing and with 4 bedrooms, 3 of which are ensuite. An impressive home with good design applied throughout the home and the garden and entertainment areas. The ground floor offers a large modern kitchen with separate utility room. The lounge and dining room are both generous in size and have their own individual patio doors out onto the terraces, garden and pool area - making for easy entertainment. The bar area outside is impressive and lends itself to family and friends entertainment, with the garden offering privacy. On the ground floor you will also find one master suite bedrooms with its very own ensuite bathroom, again with patio doors leading into the garden. The other bedroom is light and breezy and has a bathroom a few short feet away. The marble staircase leads you up the stairs to another terrace that looks out onto the Sierra de Mijas mountain range and branches off to two large bedrooms, both with their own separate balconies, views and bathrooms. Everyone in this family home have their very own private space, which makes it even more appealing. Excellent value for money in this 5 star family home ! We have the keys - viewings at your convenience.
