This special restaurant enjoys a privileged location as it is located in the center of the city in the Old Town of Marbella, one of the most visited places with a great touristic influence, full of small typical Andalusian streets and orange squares occupied by nice bars and terraces for dinner, churros or typical tapas in the area. In addition, the area is also characterized by its extensive and variable trade, close walk to the promenade and public and private transport. The place has two floors plus a wonderful terrace on the second floor with views to the outside and relaxing atmosphere. The kitchen is fully equipped and in perfect conditions of use. The restaurant is air conditioned and has a storage area and completely furnished on all three floors.
