This bright and well-designed home in Resina Golf offers an attractive location in a calm and green setting. Upon entering, you are welcomed by an open-plan living room with large windows that provide excellent natural light and a spacious feel. From here, you access the generous, sun-drenched terrace, which serves as a natural extension of the home—perfect for both relaxing and socializing, with views over greenery and the sea. The property features two bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, making it both practical and comfortable for permanent living as well as holiday use. The layout is thoughtfully designed with a focus on functionality and comfort, where the living room and surrounding spaces flow naturally together. Located in a well-maintained and sought-after area of Resina Golf, you are close to golf courses, amenities, restaurants, and the coast's beautiful beaches. The urbanisation also offers two pool areas, contributing to a relaxed and convenient lifestyle.
