Character Townhouse in the Heart of Guaro . Original character features . Separate studio apartment with independent access . Mountain and village views . Bright and airy throughout . Excellent central village location This charming townhouse in the centre of Guaro is a true gem, positioned on a picturesque street just a short stroll down into the pueblo. Full of character and natural light, the property offers flexible living space with the added benefit of a separate studio apartment. Property Details Beautiful traditional double doors open into the home, creating a wonderful first impression. The dining room welcomes you inside, with the kitchen opening off this space, making it feel sociable and ideal for entertaining. A bathroom is also located on this level, along with stairs leading down to the studio apartment (which also benefits from its own independent entrance). The lounge is situated on the first floor and feature French windows opening onto a charming Juliet balcony — a lovely character detail that enhances the natural light. There are two bedrooms on this level. At the top of the property, the roof solarium offers delightful views of the church, the village rooftops, and the distant mountains — a perfect spot to relax and enjoy the surroundings. The studio apartment includes a kitchenette and bathroom, making it ideal as a rental unit, guest accommodation, or additional private space for visiting family and friends.
